

Stance

An International Undergraduate Philosophy Journal

CALL FOR REVIEWERS

Stance seeks undergraduate philosophy students to serve as external reviewers. This is an exciting pre-professional learning opportunity. Reviewers hone their writing, researching, and reviewing skills by serving on a groundbreaking journal. Reviewers must have advanced undergraduate experience in philosophy, strengths in writing and editing, and the self-motivation necessary to complete work by given deadlines. As such, in addition to this application form, one letter of recommendation is required.

Chosen reviewers will be given one of two opportunities. Most will be External Reviewers and will be responsible for reviewing one or two papers in late January. A few will be invited to serve as Assistant Editorial Board Members on our review teams. Assistant Editorial Board Members will consider approximately twenty papers over winter break. All reviewers receive training material that explains what is expected in the formal review. Reviewers will also be credited in both the print and electronic versions of the journal.

Interested undergraduates, please provide us with the following information:

Name:

Name of School:

Year in School:

Major(s)/Minor(s):

Philosophy Courses Taken:

What is your specialty or concentration?

What experience do you have that would qualify you for this project?

What goals do you have that working on Stance will support?

What, in your opinion, are the makings of a good philosophy paper?

The undergraduate applicants should:

- (1) return an application providing the information requested above questions to ballstatestance@gmail.com (include "External Reviewer Application" as the subject heading) and
- (2) arrange for a philosophy professor to send a letter of recommendation to ballstatestance@gmail.com (include "LOR" as the subject heading for recommendation letter).

For more information see <http://stance.iweb.bsu.edu>

Deadline: Friday, October 26, 2012